THE VINE HAS GROWN.

Once upon a time
Women were the vine
That clung unto the fabled sturdy oak.
They say it's not the proper thing,
However, now to cling,
And this theory's doomed to be a joke.

The oak trees of to-day
Have such a selfish way
Of thinking that the earth is theirs alone.
The timid, trusting vine
To resent this doth incline
She wants a foot of ground to call her own.

She knows that she was born
The oak tree to adorn,
But all she asks are light and room to grow.
Did not the same dear earth
Give both vine and oak trees birth?
It is hard to make an oak believe it though.

Still, I shouldn't wonder much
If this lately dreamed of touch
Of independence in a vine would yet effect
A change for much—nay, more,
That the world's been looking for,
It may do more good than you or I expect.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurably. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:
